 - b. Chrysalis - $2,442.07 in checking. $400 set aside for scholarships.

New Business:

1. Kitchen – Food supplies should be checked prior to placing any food order. Food was found in the freezer dated 2013.
2. Chrysalis 39 Report and issues:
 - a. It is never OK to mess with the Butterflies personal belongings.
 - b. Reading the manuals is mandatory. The manuals are models to use, but God and the Holy Spirit is in control and team should be obedient to the Spirits leading.
 - c. Opposite gender on teams needs to be approved and explained what is expected of them on a weekend by the weekend Lay Leader. Opposite gender from the flight or walk cannot spend the night on campus.
 - d. Doors to the gym on the street side should be locked during Flights.
 - e. Current cordless microphones belong to the church and should stay in the conference room. They are not to be stored by Emmaus or Chrysalis.
 - f. Community Lay Director should be notified immediately of any issue regarding a Board Representative. This is not the team's issue.
3. Emmaus 105 - Walk going well. A profession of faith was made Friday night.
4. Emmaus Walk 106 and 107- Team meetings have begun. Going well.
5. Chrysalis Flight 40 – December 29,30 and 31, 2016. Several names given to Donald Stockton for consideration of Lay Directors.
6. Journey February 2017: Waiting to hear from the First Christian Church about confirmation of availability. Names given for Lay Director consideration.
